

WINDSOR GARDEN CLUB MINUTES

APRIL 14, 2025

7:00 pm- Erin Bourdon introduced Speaker Margery Winters

“Gardening for Bees, Butterflies and Other Pollinators gave an interesting and educational program. A Lively question period followed her presentation.

8:15 - WGC Business Meeting

Call meeting to order and Welcome – Co-President Jim Govoni

Jim also asks members to talk to pass Board members and think of being Part of the next Executive Board. ALL work together to keep our Club fun and exciting.

The Executive Board positions that we specifically are looking for are President(s),

Vice President(s) and Treasurer for 2026

Approval of March minutes with one correction, Scholarship paperwork filed with WHS 1-1yr $1500.

Dick Rozman 1 time $500 Scholarship. Auralee motion to accept, Di second.

Approved.

Treasurer Report- Auralee Eckman, balance: $11,292.82

President’s Announcements

Co-President Allison Joanis Looking for volunteers:

JFK front garden—Auralee will take charge, contact her for information and helping.

Boy Scouts seed night May 16th or 23rd. (Allison did seed pots)

Monarch Upcycle Planter Challenge: end of June. Apply on First Town Downtown Website.

April 26th Conservation Commission Earth Day hike.

MAY MEETING: MAY 5, 2025* Becky Hendricks home

“Bring a chair, dress for New England weather”

6pm

Open Floor Committee Chairs

David Stender reported on progress: May 10th, (setup, helpers), contact him or see sign-up sheet. Flyers were distributed. “Spread the word”

To contribute to this fundraiser: 6 plants or in-kind donation appreciated.

Reminder from Tom. Don’t wait until last minute to transfer plants to pots.

Tom Graywacz: Garden Tour plans are in place and Tom will keep us up to date.

Member announcements/ new business: Open floor

2025 Garden Club Booklets passed out.

See Allison or Teresa if you have not received a book.

- Photo Contest winner: Debbie Baker
- Member Appreciation gift: Steve Grocott
-

“Thank you, Patty Crowley, for the awesome watering can”.

Formal meeting adjourned at 8:35 pm

Co-Presidents Jim Govoni and Allison Joanis

Submitted by Co-Secretary Florence Barlow