

WINDSOR GARDEN CLUB

MEETING: MARCH 10,2025

7:00pm – Meeting open with Cindy Daniels introducing Alex Conner-Brown from

Brown's Harvest Tobacco Industry. As seventh generation Alex spoke of the involvement of Brown's in Windsor history. Tobacco farming ended in 2016, but the land will remain agricultural. Alex would like to seek more activities in the Farm Store with Charity organizations. There will continue to be vegetables available for picking at the appropriate season. You can always check out more information on the history Brown's on the Windsor Historical Society website.

Special Presentation from Enita Jubrey, Assistant Manager of Windsor: PoCD celebrating Windsor's Plan of Conservation & Development, Summer of 10,000 FLOWERS. Enita passed out samples of the sunflower seed. More information coming, spread the word.

WCG Business Meeting: Allison called the meeting to order welcoming all and thanking Alex and Enita for their reports.

Treasurer Report: Auralee Eckman has filed taxes and Scholarship for Sage Park's trip set. Balance as of March meeting: $11,415.38.

President's Announcements: Allison reminding everyone volunteer sign up sheets are on table including anyone wanting to order shovels. Plant challenge program will be late June with more info to come. Congratulations to Diane Bernier on her 2025 Phenomenal Woman's Award. Flower Power will have special cards this season.

Open Floor Committee Chairs:

Cindy reported Scholarship for Windsor student 1- $500 will be in memory of Dick Rozman. Tom Graywacz Garden Tour, June 28,2025, tickets will be $25. At this meeting we have 7 houses. Need Volunteers. David Stender May 10th Garden Mart, need co-chair. Reminder to enter photo contest: Last day of the month E-MAIL to Allison. Joanne Miller gave info on anyone interested in plant sale. NORTH CENTRAL CONVERSATIO DISTRICT 24 Hyde Ave. Vernon, CT 06066, Tel: 860-3881.Jim Daniels will have a Tobacco Museum screening, stay tune. Co-President Jim Govoni had no new information to report.

Member Appreciation gift: Congrats Beryl Sampson

Photo Contest: Congrats Clayton Curry

Formal meeting adjourned at 8:24 pm by Co- President Allison Joanis.

Submitted by Co-Secretary: Florence Barlow